

How to get to Łódź

FROM WARSAW

There are two airports in Warsaw: Warsaw Chopin Airport (WAW) and Warsaw Modlin Airport (WMI). From both of them you can get to Łódź by bus, by train or by rented car, but we strongly recommend to choose Warsaw Chopin Airport, because from Modlin travel is much longer and complicated (and if flight is late in the evening there may be no transport at all).

From Warsaw Chopin Airport:

- BY TRAIN

From the airport you should take SKM or Koleje Mazowieckie train to Western Warsaw (Warszawa Zachodnia) or Central Railway Station (Warszawa Centralna) – more info: <http://www.lotnisko-chopina.pl/en/train.html>

You can also go by bus 175 to the Central Railway Station.

There is also possibility to take taxi to the city center – it should cost around 40 PLN. Here is the list of companies recommended by the airport: <http://www.lotnisko-chopina.pl/en/taxi.html>

At Western Warsaw or Central Warsaw (this one is bigger and it should be easier to communicate there) you need to take train to Łódź – you can choose where to get off between Widzew Łódź and Łódź Kaliska. The journey takes around 1,5 hours and ticket cost around 25 PLN. You can check timetable here: <http://rozkład-pkp.pl/en>

- BY BUS

There is direct bus (ModlinBus) from the airport to Łódź Kaliska bus station. The journey takes around 2 hours, ticket prices vary. You can check timetable and book your ticket here: <https://www.modlinbus.pl/en>

- BY CAR

You can rent a car at the airport (more info here: <http://www.lotnisko-chopina.pl/en/rent-a-car.html>) and by highway A2 go to Łódź (the journey takes around 1,5 hours)

From Warsaw Modlin Airport:

- BY TRAIN

From the airport you should take bus provided by Koleje Mazowieckie (Masovia Railway) which goes to Modlin train station, WHERE YOU NEED TO CHANGE FOR Koleje Mazowieckie train to get to the Central Railway Station (Warszawa Centralna). The journey last around 1 hour and ticket cost 17 PLN. You can find timetable and more info here:
